

1. User Management

Administrators can create users and reset passwords.

Open Settings, select Security, enter a new password, and save.

2. Permission Management

Roles group permissions. Users obtain permissions through roles.