

1. User Management

Administrators can create users, reset passwords, and assign roles. All changes must be recorded

2. User Management

Administrators can create users, reset passwords, and assign roles. All changes must be recorded

3. User Management

Administrators can create users, reset passwords, and assign roles. All changes must be recorded